- Part time, 24 hours per week
- 1-year fixed term contract
- £27,266 - £28,625 pro rata
- Edinburgh

At CrossReach we've been providing a wide range of counselling services for over 30 years. Driven to provide cutting edge support to all people in need, we were the first organisation in Scotland to offer dedicated perinatal counselling and therapy for new parents and families. Additionally, our general counselling services are open to all ages from young to old, families and couples, covering everything from relationships and mental health to addiction.

As part of a restructure to meet increasing demands for mental wellbeing, we've created two Senior Counselling/Therapy posts to support the running of our general and perinatal services in Edinburgh. These roles are a chance to combine a clinical caseload with managing our team of volunteer counsellors/therapists. As a Senior Counsellor in our general services, you will have the opportunity to broaden your experience across a wide range of areas, with the perinatal post there is the chance to contribute to this pioneering and developing family service.

We're looking for a qualification at Diploma level in Counselling/Art Therapy and ideally a qualification in Training and Clinical Supervision. Registered with a professional body such as COSCA, BACP or BAAT, with at least two years' post qualifying experience, you will also need to be a strong self-motivator able to work to a broad remit where priorities can change on a daily basis.

As part of our CrossReach Counselling Services, you'll enjoy a supportive team environment and a breadth of development opportunities, including subsidized courses on a variety of topics. We also offer an excellent benefits package including an employer contributory pension and a generous holiday allowance.

What's more, you will be part of one of Scotland's largest voluntary social work organisations. At CrossReach, we offer quality care and counselling to a wide range of people in need. But the real story of CrossReach is the work that our staff do: reaching out and making a real difference to the lives of others. If you'd like to join them, we look forward to hearing from you.
