Making connections in 2017

Foundation Weekend
Appreciating Who I Am
11/12 March
Birnam Arts

On this two-day workshop in Highland Perthshire you'll take a fresh look at personal and family stories, along with significant people and events in your life. An uplifting weekend of insights and sharing.

Foundation Residential
Life Stories In The Sun
17-24 June
Cortijo Romero, Andalucia

This seven-day residential workshop also makes the most of the Andalucian sunshine, with plenty of time off for personal reflection, swimming, walking and

THE STORIES WE TELL workshops are about creating the space for you to safely explore some of those stories that are so familiar. What does this one really say about me? Do I really need this one any longer? Is there another version of that one?

Our 2017 programme is full of opportunities for self-discovery, for being clearer about what matters most in our lives, for making the most of our natural creativity, for being kinder to ourselves. Hoping you might be able to join us!
