

We would like to invite you to our 11th Annual Counselling and Psychotherapy Postgraduate Research Conference on Thursday 4 May 2017, between 9.30 am and 4.00 pm.

The theme of the conference is: 'Counselling for a Better World'.

The conference is hosted by current postgraduate students in Counselling and Psychotherapy at the University of Edinburgh. Counselling and Psychotherapy Masters and Doctoral students from other Scottish Universities are also invited to present their research projects at the conference.

Student presenters will talk about research in progress and we hope that this will create opportunities to find out about approaches to research in Counselling and Psychotherapy and to hear about research at postgraduate level happening in Scotland.

Conference participants will be invited to contribute to discussion about individual papers and counselling research in general.

A detailed programme will be available in due course. The papers cover a wide range of research topics in counselling and psychotherapy, including case studies from counselling work, research on counselling training and research applying the insights of counselling and psychotherapy to other contexts.

The venue for the conference will be at the Medical School (Doorway 6), University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh EH8 9AG. Registration and coffee will take place in the Project Room 4.1.

The cost for registration, including lunch and refreshments, is £10.

Attendance is free for staff and students in Counselling and Psychotherapy at the University of Edinburgh.
