COSCA Journal: Counselling in Scotland

COSCA would like to hear from anyone, COSCA member or non member, who may be interested in submitting an article for the COSCA Journal – ‘Counselling in Scotland’.

You may have an interest in a particular area of counselling and wish to share this with COSCA members.

It may be that you are not ready to submit an article at this time. However, you can express your interest and let us know your intention to submit at a later date.

We very much hope you may be interested and if so, you should contact in the first instance, Brian Magee, COSCA Chief Executive – brian@cosca.org.uk.

COSCA will only publish articles from individuals/organisations that it considers to be of interest to its membership.

Submission Deadline:

Submission deadline date: 11 August 2017

Advertising Costs:

Half page (180 – 125 mm)	£50.00
Quarter page (84 x 125 mm)	£35.00

Guidelines on Submitting Articles for Publication

1. Submission requirements

As the author you should provide:

- articles of a maximum length of 2,000 words (including references);
- a high resolution digital photograph of yourself at the same time as submitting the article; the picture requires to be submitted in j peg format only
- your credit – for example, name and job title; and
- a short biography of yourself (one or two sentences)
- the article by email

2. Format

Submitted articles should have the following format:

- Rich Text format (.rtf) or normal Word document (.doc). For .docx documents, please contact marilyn@cosca.org.uk
- single line spacing
- text ranged from the left and paragraphs double spaced
- Times Roman, 12 point, if possible
- single spaces after all punctuation marks
- double quote marks for speech
- titles of publications in italics
- numbered pages with the title of the article repeated on each page (e.g., My article by John Smith/5).
- illustrations for any articles enclosed separately, as high resolution .jpeg files i.e. images should not be included in your text document.

3. Editing of Submitted Articles

Please note that:

- the editor reserves the right to edit articles, but any substantial changes will be agreed with the author before going to print
- we may return the article to you for amendments (for example, if your piece is too long or if elements need to be edited or clarified)

Although we are happy to read unsolicited articles, you are free to send a query email if you wish to discuss your proposed piece.

Please send your submissions or queries to the editor, John Dodds at: jakk1954@gmail.com
