

Falkirk's Mental Health Association (FDAMH)
Counselling Service Manager, Central Falkirk
35 hours per week,
£27,000 - £29,500 per annum dependent on experience
1 year fixed term (may be extended, subject to continuation funding)

We have an exciting opportunity for an experienced Counselling Service Manager to join our established service. The post holder will lead the delivery of efficient and high-quality services to our clients through:

- Ensuring best practice standards are met and performance is regularly monitored and evidenced to stakeholders and funders.
- Operational management of the counselling services including support, development to the counselling team.
- Reviewing and developing services, including the management of face-to-face and online counselling.

With a qualification and skills pertinent to the role, applicants should have demonstrable experience of recruiting and managing staff/volunteers and rotas as well as the ability to provide counselling/therapeutic practices and assessments to a wide age group.

Please see our website for further information and an application pack:
<https://www.fdamh.org.uk/news/jobs-and-opportunities/>

Closing date: 12 noon on Friday 10th September 2021