

COSCA (Counselling & Psychotherapy in Scotland)
16 Melville Terrace | Stirling | FK8 2NE
t 01786 475 140 f: 01786 446 207
e: info@cosca.org.uk w: www.cosca.org.uk

COSCA VACANCY

LAY MEMBER OF COSCA CORPORATE AFFAIRS GROUP (VOLUNTARY POST)

COSCA (Counselling & Psychotherapy in Scotland) is Scotland's professional body for counselling and psychotherapy.

- We are looking for one lay member to join our existing COSCA Corporate Affairs Group.
- This Group is responsible for assessing applications to join COSCA and the COSCA Register of Counsellors and Psychotherapists. Our Register holds a list of COSCA members who have met a set of standards for entry to the Register.
- The Lay member will have experience in making decisions about the suitability of applicants against established criteria.
- The Lay member will be given induction training covering the functions of the Corporate Affairs Group and its responsibilities in respect of COSCA membership and COSCA's Register of Counsellors and Psychotherapists, and will be reimbursed for agreed out of pocket expenses.

To apply, please submit a letter of application (not a CV) to COSCA's Chief Executive, Brian Magee, detailing how your knowledge and skills relate to the above role: brian@cosca.org.uk

Submission deadline is 12 noon on Wednesday 10th January 2024.

Short-listed candidates will be invited to attend for a short interview at the COSCA office in Stirling.