

Dochas Carers Centre
Supporting Unpaid Carers

The Dochas Carers Centre is a charity based in Lochgilphead providing services to unpaid carers. Our Lead Counsellor retires in December, and we are now looking for a replacement to start on 9th December.

Our counselling service is for unpaid carers and people over 16 and their families who are living with long-term/terminal illness or bereavement. Dochas Carers Centre is a member of Counselling and Psychotherapy in Scotland (COSCA). Our counselling team has 4 fully trained and qualified members. We also have a trained mindfulness teacher who is a valuable member of our team and often have students on placement.

Counselling Lead: P/T, 12 hrs per week, £18.88ph, £11,781 pa. Based in Campbell Street in Lochgilphead, responsible to Dochas Carers Centre Manager.

Job Purpose: To manage and further develop the Counselling service. The post holder must be a qualified counsellor and ideally a supervisor. There is scope to work as a freelance counsellor for the organisation in addition to holding this role.

This post is subject to PVG scheme check. For a recruitment pack and more information: Please ring 01546 600022 or email recruitment@dochas.scot
