

Carr Gomm Counselling Service Manager

Carr Gomm is a leading social care and community development charity; we provide person-centred services across Scotland to enable people to live their best possible life. As part of our strategic plan, we are aiming to develop accessible online counselling and psychological well-being approaches. We are therefore looking for a fully trained and accredited counselling practitioner to develop a digital Employee Assistance Programme (EAP) with identified partners, and also to explore Carr Gomm creating affordable counselling and mental health opportunities for individuals who currently experience barriers to accessing these.

Carr Gomm is investing to support this role for 2 years so that a motivated, innovative and productive practitioner can drive these developments forward, from the groundwork which has already been undertaken by senior management and EAP partners, to fruition and to delivery.

For further information which will help you explore your fit with both this role and our ambitions in the area of counselling and supporting mental well-being, please see the attached role profile.

If you would like to apply, forward your CV to recruitment@carrgomm.org - please shape your CV to highlight how your skills and experience match what we are looking for in this exciting new role for the organisation.

Closing date: 31st March 2023.

Please note that interviews will take place on the 20th and 21st of April.
