

COSCA Annual Ethics Event 2027

Wednesday 17 February 2027 | 11am-1pm | via Zoom

Cultural Competency and Culturally Responsive Practice

This year's Annual Ethics Event will explore and discuss:

- The need for counselling and psychotherapy to be more culturally competent and responsive
- Ways of reducing barriers to counselling and psychotherapy for people from marginalised groups
- The ethical priority of addressing these barriers to ensure that counselling and psychotherapy services are effective, safe and non-exploitative

Keynote Presenters: Rah Chima and Asma Khan

Scottish Asian Counsellors Network

Event programme information will follow nearer the time.

To book, please complete the attached booking form.

COSCA Annual Ethics Event 2027

Booking Form

Wednesday 17 February 2027 | 11am-1pm | via Zoom

Cultural Competency and Culturally Responsive Practice

Name

Address

Organisation

Email

Telephone

COSCA member?

☐

Yes

☐

No

Event fee (please tick one):

☐

COSCA member - £10

☐

Non-member - £15

Payment method:

☐

Bank transfer

☐

Invoice requested

Bank: Virgin Money, Murray Place, Stirling

Sort Code: 82 68 05; Account No. 70174110

Date paid:

Invoice address (if different from above):

Return completed forms to ashleigh@cosca.org.uk

COSCA, 16 Melville Terrace, Stirling FK8 2NE